BOOK SYNOPSIS

Jen Haverhurst is on the verge of becoming a partner in New York City's top event-planning company when her sister calls begging for help. The New Hampshire town of Gleann--where they spent many happy childhood summers--is in danger of losing its main attraction, the Highland Games. Jen reluctantly agrees to take over running the games, as well as helping with their aunts failing B&B. But she didn't count on seeing Leith MacDougall again.
